Family Camp

Here's an invitation for all Troop 81 families to enjoy a relaxing weekend camping at Indian Boundary Recreation Area, the premier destination in the Cherokee National Forest. We'll be staying in the group campsite which has water and restrooms available. There's no structured program (except a Saturday night campfire and Sunday worship service) so everyone can do whatever they like including fishing, swimming, boating, wildlife viewing and scenic driving. Other popular activities include hiking and biking the trail around Indian Boundary Lake. The recreation area contains a swim beach, boat ramp, fishing pier, picnic area and volleyball court. An on-site campground store sells bread, ice, milk, ice cream and other camping supplies.

When: August 17-18, 2019 (Saturday – Sunday)
